

The Professor

The self-titled character gives up his Lepidopterist hobby after observing Charles Montgomery Hackett pedal his pushbike into the rear end of a stationary bus. The Professor instantly decides to abandon the butterfly and moth fraternity and become an anthropologist instead. He is going to study Charlie. However, the Professor is not a well man, mentally speaking. Between lust-fueled desire for his housekeeper Craddock, the crazed ramblings of the Professor could possibly (improbable as it may seem) reveal a depth of insight into today's society. Or maybe he should have continued to take his medication. There on the floor in a tangle was what turned out to be something not dissimilar to a man. Probably aged somewhere around his mid-seventies, he was entwined with a British racing green bicycle of a similar vintage.

NOTE: This story is included in the book Chicken Lababdar: and eight other stories.
