

The Prose Works of Charles Lamb, Vol. 3 of 3 (Classic Reprint)

Tms poor gentleman who for some months past had been ma declining way, hath at length paid his final tribute to nature. ,T osay tru Ait is time he were gone. The humour of the thing, if there ever was much in it, iras pretty well exhausted; and a two years and a half existence has been a tolerable duration for a phantom. I am now at liberty to confess, that much which I have hedrd. objected to my late friends writings was. well-founded. Crude they are, I grant you a sort of unlicked, incondite things villainously pranked in an affected array of antique modes and phrases.(Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and dont occur in the book.)About the Publisher Forgotten Books is a publisher of historical writings, such as: Philosophy, Classics, Science, Religion, History, Folklore and Mythology.Forgotten Books Classic Reprint Series utilizes the latest technology to regenerate facsimiles of historically important writings.
