

Gestalt Therapy Mini-Lectures

Edited by Abe Levitsky, Ph.D., this book is based on transcripts of training workshops conducted by the late James Simkin, Ph.D., a long-time associate of Frederick Perls and a founder of the Gestalt Therapy Institute of Los Angeles. From the foreword by Erving Polster: The book provides a view into the mind of one of the magnificent therapists of his day, one whose work gave honor to the concepts he describes. Jim Simkin was a therapeutic stylist who demonstrated the powerful leverage of high attention, accurate perceptions, honesty, common sense, and a talent for saying the timely word. He became a wizard among the many people he taught, continually offering cunning confrontations to the mysteries he witnessed. These mysteries enthralled him to the end; yet one of his prime accomplishments was to demystify the mysterious by turning it into common human experience, understandable and assimilable. The reader will see this process manifested over and over in this book. James S. Simkin, Ph.D., was awarded his doctorate in clinical psychology by the University of Michigan in 1951. He received his post-doctoral training at the New York Institute for Gestalt Therapy from 1952 through 1955. He was a Diplomate in Clinical Psychology of the American Board of Examiners of Professional Psychology and was a licensed psychologist in the State of California. A founder of the Gestalt Therapy Institute of Los Angeles, he co-led, with Frederick Perls, M.D., Gestalt therapy training workshops for professionals at the Esalen Institute from 1964 to 1969. In 1972 he established the Simkin Residential Training Center in Gestalt Therapy in Big Sur, California, where he conducted training workshops for professionals until he passed away in 1984. The subject of a training film, In the Now, he produced several training tapes and was the author of numerous articles including the chapter on Gestalt therapy that appeared in Corsini's CURRENT PSYCHOTHERAPIES. In December of 1984, the Gestalt Therapy Institute of Los Angeles published the JAMES SOLOMON SIMKIN, PH.D., MEMORIAL FESTSCHRIFT in his honor.
