

Stiff

Accidentally killing someone can be awkward at the best of times, but Leo Brigham manages to do it in mid-coitus with a seductive stranger he meets in a nightclub thus leaving him with an appalling dilemma. Does he go to the police, risk prison and losing his estranged seven-year-old son or does he get rid of the body? With a little persuasion from hedonistic best friend Sean, Leo selects option B and so begins his downfall. Stiff is a riotous tale of death, disintegration and exotic Japanese fish written by a former writer of BBC's "Not the 9 O'Clock News". The premise of this novel is brilliant. David Grossman, David Grossman Literary Agency
