

Blueprint for Health: An Illustrated Adventure in Human Anatomy

Kids are naturally curious about their bodies. We have the answers to their questions in this book. What is the smallest bone? Why do we see in color? What happens to the food we eat? How much blood do we have? Excellent resource guide along with activities so the answers will make sense and stick. Sections on bones, muscular system, nervous system, vascular system, respiratory system, digestive system, and eyes.
