

Dean Dunham or the Waterford Mystery (Illustrated) (Classic Fiction for Young Adults Book 69)

This book follows the adventures of intrepid sixteen-year-old Dean Dunham as he travels to find his fortune and solves the mystery of his uncles robbery. A really fun book for young people and adults, as well. The book has 10 images, of which six are unique to this edition. Horatio Alger, Jr. (January 13, 1832 – July 18, 1899) was a prolific 19th-century American author, best known for his many formulaic juvenile novels about impoverished boys and their rise from humble backgrounds to lives of middle-class security and comfort through hard work, determination, courage, and honesty. His writings were characterized by the rags-to-riches narrative, which had a formative effect on America during the Gilded Age. * This e-book is a true representation, from a high-definition scan of a pre-1923 print version of the book. Unlike other e-copies of the book, it was not produced by using Optical Character Recognition (OCR). OCR-scanning old books is seldom, if ever, error-free. This often results in an e-book with many , ^^, >> and typographic errors when OCR cant read the word or punctuation correctly. * True representation means that if there are typographic, spelling, or grammatical errors that the editor judges to have minimal impact on the books comprehension, they have been preserved; otherwise, they were corrected. * In other words, no changes or as few as possible have been made to either illustrations or text in order to bring you an e-book that is as close to the original as possible.
